New Tax Representation Books for Accountants by TG Publishing

NEW HAVEN, CT -- TG Publishing announces the publication of two new titles: The Accountant's Guide to IRS Collection: A Step-by-Step Guide to Resolving Your Client's Tax Debt – Second Edition and The Accountant's Guide to Resolving Tax Debts: Offers-in-Compromise, Installment Agreements, and Uncollectible Status – Second Edition, both by Eric L. Green.

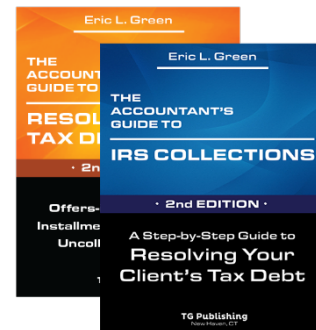

Written for tax professionals who want to learn the intricacies and strategies of assisting taxpayers with IRS debt, these two books are available in trade paperback and PDF ebook.

Author Eric L. Green is a nationally recognized Tax Attorney whose talks have educated thousands of tax practitioners. He is a partner in the law firm Green & Sklarz LLC and the founder of TaxRep LLC, an online member-driven organization of IRS tax representation professionals.

Mr. Green adds, “With nearly 15 million taxpayers on the IRS Collections roster, we need thousands more tax professionals with expertise in this area. I wrote these books to make it easier and faster for tax professionals to get up to speed and do a better job helping these taxpayers.”

Michael O’Leary, a tax resolution expert, says, “I have a tax resolution business today because of Eric Green and his two books.”
